

Funding the Vision

As we get under way here in 2013 I want to once again thank everyone who helped fund the vision of Rockwood Adventist in 2012. Thanks to your faithfulness and some focused expense reduction we were able to end the year without drawing down our financial reserves. In fact, we were able to strengthen them. However, as you know 2013 brings us new challenges with the loss of our rental income from House Hold of Faith's shared use of our church.

In today's bulletin you will find a copy of the budget we are recommending for 2013. This budget does not include any revenue from rent. Rather, it relies fully on God blessing each of us and us returning a portion of those blessings to fund the vision of our church. You'll notice our monthly goal for total church operating revenue is $14,315. Of this total we need $11,555 in direct donations to maintain the ministries of our church. This includes $9,600 to the Church Budget, $600 to Lambs Offering, and another $1,355 to various expenditures like Sabbath School Expense, PACS, etc. By averaging $11,555 per month (obviously some months will be above and others will be below) we can maintain our reserves and even begin to strengthen them for future maintenance of our facility. The other $2,759 we are budgeting in operating revenue will come from your donations to Evangelism, Women's Ministries activities, and fundraising by the Pathfinders, etc.

You'll also notice the Total Operating Budget shows $1,375 more in expenditures than we are projecting we'll receive in revenue. What? Yes! Thanks to your generosity in December of 2012 we are starting our 2013 budget with a carryover. As promised this carryover will be used to fund several maintenance projects in 2013.

As you look over the budget feel free to contact Pastor Gene or LeRoy Riley who is our Finance Chairperson. LeRoy's number is (503) 666-7245. We will ask for you to approve this budget next Sabbath.

Finally, to give you a report of our financial picture so far this January we have received offerings of $4,576.58 toward our goal mentioned above of $11,555.
