500 Days in Jail!

Pastor Antonio Monteiro, a Seventh-day Adventist from Cape Verde, was arrested on March 15, 2012 in Togo, Africa. He was accused of conspiracy to commit murder and imprisoned, despite a total lack of evidence and an unreliable witness. Seventh-day Adventist Church leaders have been working on his behalf for more than a year without seeing results. To date he has not even received a trial. Last Sabbath, July 27th, marked Pastor Monteiro's 500th day in jail. Please remember him and his family in prayer.

The North American Division Music Committee for the 2015 General Conference Session (July 2-11 in San Antonio, Texas) is now accepting applications from musicians/ groups desiring to perform at the GC Session.
