

Sermon Study Guide

The Church at Thyatira

1. While wealth and security were important in the Greco-Roman world, the pursuit of _____ was desired above all else.
2. _____ is free. However, _____ Jesus may cost us our reputations, our families, our jobs, and even our lives.
3. In Revelation, there is a move from the _____ geographical areas of Old Testament prophecy to a worldwide perspective in the New Testament.
4. God's covenant with Israel resembles a _____ covenant. The relationship depends on both parties being faithful to their vows. However, even though we are unfaithful, because of _____ faithfulness our relationship with God is secure as long as we repent and turn back to Him.
5. Since the cross no nation or group of people have an _____ to be God's chosen people of the covenant. Through Christ the covenant is available for all who accept Him as Lord and Saviour.
6. In Revelation, the experiences of _____ in the _____ are used to illustrate what is happening to the church.
7. The literal local geography of the Old Testament is given a universal _____ - _____ application in Revelation.
8. The _____ are those who follow Jesus instead of the Jezebel's of the world with their false teachings and threats of persecution.
