

Tips for Reigniting Your Relationship with Jesus

1. _____: If you don't feel a desire to change, let God know that you are willing to be made willing (see John 7:17). Many Christians feel spiritually divided: 30 per cent want to serve God with all their heart, and 70 per cent are tired and don't feel like it right now. But God can grow your commitment into a firm decision.
2. Make a _____ and firm _____. Jesus used the strong word "Repent!" You may have to take decisive action, throw things out or do something radical. Say to yourself, "I am not going to let another day go by without taking action to be where God wants me to be."
3. Go back to the place where you last saw the _____. Keep a journal and write down the high points of your spiritual life. When things are not going so well, you can read the journal and be encouraged. The best devotional book you'll ever find is the one you write yourself.
4. Retrace your _____. Re-read the books you first read when you became a Christian. Especially spend time with the Bible – it will build your faith. Add the things God reveals to you during this time to your new journal.
5. Be a _____. Begin to tell others about your faith. As you witness to others, your faith will grow.

It's hard to stay awake spiritually when the people around you are asleep. But it's even harder to sleep when the people around you are spiritually awake
