

Sermon Notes

*Revelation 4 and 5
The Lion, the Lamb and the Throne*

1. _____ gives us a summary of the basic content found Revelation chapters 4 to 7, where we have the throne scene followed by the seven seals.
2. Students of Revelation must be careful not to miss the _____ of Revelation 4 and 5 by making too much of every detail.
3. From Revelation 4:1 forward, the primary focus in the Book of Revelation is on things that are _____ from John's point of view (approximately 95 AD).
4. Revelation 4 and 5 portray the decisive event in the great controversy – the death of the _____ and his _____ as king of the universe.
5. In Revelation 5:5 John is told to look and see the _____ of the tribe of Judah but when he looks instead of seeing a lion he sees a _____.
6. Since Jesus is established as King (both _____ and _____) of the universe in Revelation 4 and 5 we should expect to find Him bringing _____ to the world. And that is exactly what the rest of the book of Revelation is about.
7. The major point of this passage is the exaltation of the Lamb to _____ with the Father. Therefore, we should not be surprised that never again will _____ be praised without mention of who the Lamb is, what He has done, and why He is worthy.
