

Jesus' Ministry in Rockwood

by Pastor Gene

If Jesus' ministry would have brought Him to the Rockwood community I imagine that like every other place He visited His desire for the good of others would have led Him to socialize with the people of Rockwood. As He spent time with them He would learn about their needs, sympathize with them, and in line with the Father's will he would have met their needs. As a result Jesus would win the confidence of many people in Rockwood. With that He could invite them to explore the way, live the truth, and share in His life.

Well, Jesus' ministry has arrived in Rockwood. At least it did back in 1974 when the foundations for Rockwood Seventh-day Adventist Church were planted in this community. However, over the last forty years the community around the church has changed. If we are going to continue to minister for Jesus in this community we need to connect with the people, sympathize with their needs, minister to them, and win their confidence so we can invite them to explore the way, live the truth and share in the life Jesus has waiting for all of us.

The leaders of your church recently reviewed an analysis of the Rockwood community. During our May board meeting each member present committed to spend the next thirty days asking God to reveal how He wants us to connect with the people of Rockwood in ways that will be meaningful to them. Instead of developing plans and asking God to bless them. We are asking God to show us the plan He has already blessed so we can work with Him to develop that plan in our community.

I know God has a plan for Rockwood. Next week during our board meeting I am anticipating that God will show us that plan. However, if our timing is not in line with His we will continue to pray until His plan is clear. Until that time please pray for your church leaders, pray for Jesus' ministry, and pray for the people of Rockwood.
