

LOVE IS PATIENT ... LOVE IS KIND ... LOVE IS ...

old fashioned

in theaters this valentine's day

This Valentine's Day, celebrate a godly love story.

It's finally here - February 14. Many have been inundated with commercials and online chatter about why we have to see Fifty Shades of Grey, a Hollywood film about sex and abuse. Then there's OLD FASHIONED, which is also coming to theaters on Valentine's Day weekend.

Daring to encourage moviegoers to find something beyond today's hook-up culture that leaves people longing for so much more, old fashioned is a faith-based movie that inspires a genuine hunger for godly romance and healthy relationships.

OLD FASHIONED is a heartwarming love story about Clay, a former frat boy whose relationship with Christ impacts the way he looks at life and relationships, and Amber, a free-spirited woman who has felt the pain of dating relationships. Together, they attempt the impossible: an old-fashioned courtship in contemporary America!

If you believe love is a gift from God to be treasured, then OLD FASHIONED is the movie for you! Let's boldly affirm the biblical truth that God's plan for love – a beautiful pathway to relationships filled with forgiveness, healing, and grace! See OLD FASHIONED in theaters beginning Valentine's Day weekend.

Hollywood's idea of a love story these days is Fifty Shades of Grey... Let's celebrate that Love is Patient ... Love is Kind ...
Love is OLD FASHIONED.

Adventists are Doing Things that Matter in their communities! On February 21-22 hear from activists who are fulfilling community need through community gardens, medical clinics, a mobile food bank, free clothing shops and more. Our special guest presenter will be Dr. Sung Kwon, who has dramatically broadened the course of Adventist Community Services for the SDA Church in North America. On Sabbath, February 21, join us for the Church Service, potluck, then training from 2:00 to 5:30 pm. Ministering to the homeless will be the focus of Sunday, the 22nd, beginning with actually feeding the homeless at 7:15 am, then returning to the church at 10:30 am for a free brunch and interactive training until 2:00 pm. Sponsored by the Oregon Conference, this event is hosted by Tabernacle SDA Church, 26 SW Condor Way, Portland. For information, call Cheri Corder at (503) 850-3558.
