

News from the Pastor's Desk

PACS COW – In case you missed Sam Pellecer's presentation last Sabbath we have the PACS COW (Commodities On Wheels) scheduled to arrive at Rockwood on Monday, March 9th at 4 pm (and every 2nd Monday thereafter). We were able to recruit a few volunteers on Sabbath but still need more. If you are interested in serving as a greeter, or a personal shopping assistant, please email pastorgene@gmail.com

Veggie Burgers, Ice Cream and a Business Meeting – Please mark your calendars and plan to participate in a special fellowship supper and church business meeting on March 14 at 6:00 pm. Several important opportunities await your input so all members are encouraged to participate in this special planning event.

Village Support Network (VSN) – After participating in the VSN training offered by the New City Initiative several members are passionate about the potential Village Support Network offers our church for training and equipping members to be mentors. Not just mentoring community members in need but also other Rockwood members in ministry. We currently need two additional members join our VSN team before we launch this mentoring program. You can learn more about the training at <http://www.newcityinitiative.net/resources/training>.

The movie, Old Fashioned, is the most successful Christian film ever to open on fewer than 300 screens. It was sold out in many theaters, and according to Box Office Mojo, was shown in only 224 theaters this past holiday weekend and exceeded $1 million. Viewers on Rotten Tomatoes rated it a positive 96 percent. It plans to expand by 80 more theaters. Check for a showing near you at www.oldfashionedmovie.com/theaters.

Community Health Education classes are coming to Rockwood this spring. Watch your bulletins for details in the weeks ahead.
