

New Conference Offering

God has given us the privilege of joining Him in the work of salvation. Bringing our offerings to Him is part of His plan for us to support the work of bringing the Good News to our world.

Today's loose offering is for our new main Conference Offering, "Oregon Conference Youth Support". This offering affects our youth in three different areas:

First, today's offering helps to support the continued strong academic, social and spiritual education of our young people within our 3 stand-alone academies, CAA, PAA and Milo, which represents almost 500 of our young people.

Today's offering also supports our Youth Camp, Big Lake, which has been influencing the spiritual lives of our young people through outdoor leadership training in a natural, beautiful setting for over 50 years. This last year new attendance records were set at Big Lake.

The third area of support from today's offering is for Young Adult Ministries which provides spiritual fellowship and ministry opportunity on our secular university campuses and local young adult ministry for our young people in the 18-30 age group.

This world is truly not our home and we will soon realize our goal of walking into a Kingdom made new hand in hand with the young people God has given to our care where we will spend eternity with a loving God. Your support for this offering today will help us all reach that goal of seeing young people chose Jesus as their personal friend.

For those of you who would like to support today's offering by using an offering envelope please write in Oregon Youth Support under the Conference section on the envelope. New offering envelopes are expected to arrive in April and they will have an option listed for Oregon Conference Youth Support which replaces several other conference offerings currently listed on our offering envelopes.
