

Adventist Health Portland and Oregon Health Sciences Center

Adventist Health Portland and Oregon Health Sciences University today announced a final agreement to integrate their clinical activities and services in the Portland metropolitan area through an affiliation that becomes effective January 1, 2018.

This agreement makes OHSU and Adventist Health Portland part of the same Portland metropolitan Health System, bringing Adventist's health care enterprise that includes a 302-bed medical center, 34 medical clinics and home care and hospice services in the Portland-Vancouver metro area.

"Our affiliation brings together the strength of a respected community hospital system in the metro Portland area with that of the only academic health center in Oregon," said OHSU President Joe Robertson, M.D., M.B.A. "The focus Adventist Health Portland has put on quality care and preventive medicine in its community is especially well-regarded and complementary to OHSU's mission."

Under this affiliation, OHSU and Adventist Health Portland will share a bottom line and operate as a unified system. The affiliation applies to OHSU's Portland-area clinical services and activities, and Adventist Health Portland, which includes Adventist Health Portland Medical Center and its affiliated clinics, centers and services. The agreement does not include OHSU's research and education missions, nonmetro clinical activities and services, and the other 19 Adventist Health hospitals in the western United States. Each organization will retain its existing hospital licenses, capital assets and employees.

Each entity will continue to maintain their individual mission and culture but will together transform access and the delivery of health to Oregonians through a unified clinical enterprise and shared brand experience.

Adventist World Radio will be presenting our service on December 2, with the Adult Sabbath-school, the worship service, and a 2:00 pm meeting that afternoon. (Adult teachers, please note there are no classes!) There will be a meal, provided by AWR, after the worship service.

Help Us Decorate for Christmas on Tuesday, November 28. Barbara Specht will be in charge and could really use a few sets of extra hands, so join her at 12:30 pm.

Funding Our Christmas Poinsettias - Please see your bulletin inserts regarding our “Memorials and Thanks.” This is how we fund our decorations each year. If you have a loved one that you would like us to remember on December 23, or something for which you are especially grateful, please complete the form, and along with your check, drop it in the offering plate by December 16.

Our Annual Christmas Program will be on December 9, with a hot breakfast served at 9:30 am. We ask that those whose last names start with A-L bring Christmas breads, and M-Z bring fruit trays. Both should be TABLE READY, with no cleaning, slicing or other prep in the kitchen that morning. The Christmas program starts at 10:30 am. There will be no Sabbath-school classes on December 9.

Our Next Christmas Choir Rehearsal is scheduled for Friday, December 1, at 7:00 pm. The schedule is posted on
