New Oregon Conference Vice President

On Thursday April 26, 2018, Dr. David Schwinghammer accepted an invitation to become the next vice president for administration for the Oregon Conference. The call came after a joint meeting of the conference nominating and executive committees. He will replace Elder Dave Allen who retires July 1.

Since 2016, Dr. Schwinghammer has been serving in the Ontario Conference in Canada as vice president for administration. Before that, he served in the Ontario Conference as a pastor, then as stewardship director. He brings a wealth of experience in church administration and leadership to his new role. He holds degrees from Burman University, the Adventist Theological Seminary, and Fuller Theological Seminary.

Dave and his wife, Ingrid, have two children. Their daughter, Albany, attends Andrews University while son, Justin, is an academy student. Ingrid has served at ADRA Canada for over 13 years.

Schwinghammer is planning to begin serving the Oregon Conference July 1, 2018 with family relocation to follow.

As Pastor Dave joins the Oregon Conference, I am confident that God has marvelous things in store for this leadership team going forward. We are very pleased to welcome Dave, Ingrid, Albany & Justin Schwinghammer to our Oregon Conference Administrative Family!

Daniel Linrud,
Oregon Conference President
