

New Interim Principal at PAA

Last week the Portland Adventist Academy board voted unanimously to name Mechelle Peinado as interim principal for the 2018-19 school year.

During a staff meeting PAA teachers and staff met with Gale Crosby from the Oregon Conference Office of Education to affirm and commend Mechelle in her leadership.

Teachers shared words that reflected Mechelle's character: hard-working, joyful, faithful, peaceful, trusting, friend, and many more.

Mrs. Peinado has been an administrator and teacher at PAA for more than four years. She has remained a steadfast source of confidence and optimism for PAA teachers and staff and a shining light to her students.

May God's Love Prevail

Our General Conference Annual Council meetings began on October 11 and will continue through October 17. Northwest church leaders have joined others from around the world in Battle Creek, Mich., where so much of our church's history is centered. May each member of our world church executive committee recall the wisdom of our early pioneers on church governance balanced with Scripture and the Spirit's leading. May they heed Ellen White's warnings against human effort supplanting God's Spirit.

Please pray with us that we will allow Jesus to be the center of every discussion and every decision. Pray that each world church leader will be inspired by God's Spirit, God's Word, God's wisdom, God's love, and God's power.

Please pray that those who cast their votes at this year's Annual Council meetings will trust Jesus for divine solutions.
